PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS' FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff, Todd C. Bank, hereby responds to Defendants' First Set of Requests For Production of Documents pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 as follows:

GENERAL STATEMENTS

1. In responding to these Requests for Production, Plaintiff does not waive any rights to object to any order related to discovery in this action.

2. Plaintiff continues to search for information responsive to Defendants' Requests, and therefore reserves the right to supplement its responses to each Request with documents as such documents become available, subject to all applicable objections.

3. By responding to any Request, Plaintiff does not concede the materiality of the subjects to which it refers. The Responses made herein are made expressly subject to, and without waiving or intending to waive, any questions or objections as to competency, relevancy, materiality, privilege, or admissibility as evidence or for any other purpose, of any of the documents produced, in any proceeding including trial of this action.

4. Inadvertent production of any information or document that is privileged, or is otherwise immune from discovery, shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege or of any other ground for objecting to discovery with respect to such document or the information contained in the document, or Plaintiff's right to object to the use of any such document during any proceeding in this litigation or otherwise.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiff objects to each Definition and Request to the extent that it requires Plaintiff to produce documents from persons over whom Plaintiff has no control.

2. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks disclosure of privileged documents.

3. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks documents that are irrelevant to the subject matter of this action or is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, including the Request for the identification of "all" documents or "each" and "every" document when all relevant facts can be obtained from fewer than "all" documents or "each" and "every" document.

4. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks documents that are unreasonably cumulative or duplicative.

5. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks documents that, if they exist, are obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive.

6. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks documents that Defendants have had ample opportunity by discovery in the action to obtain the information sought.

7. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks documents whose production outweighs its likely benefit.

8. Plaintiff objects, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3), to each Definition and Request to the extent that it seeks disclosure of attorney's work product or trial-preparation material.

9. Plaintiff objects to each Definition and Request to the extent that it is ambiguous, vague, or otherwise incomprehensible.

10. Plaintiff objects to each Definition and Request to the extent that it concerns the time period prior to January 17, 2011, or after January 17, 2012, and responds to each Request subject to this objection.
